Jesus Teaches About Helping
—Luke 10

Helping Others

The teachers of the law knew that they were supposed to love God and their neighbors. They were trying to test Jesus when they asked, "Who is my neighbor?" To answer them, Jesus told the story of "The Good Samaritan."

Follow the path that the man took from Jerusalem to Jericho. Every time you come to a capital letter, write that letter in the spaces below. When you are finished, you will know who your neighbor is.

The Good Samaritan

Match the question with the answer you choose:

How would you feel?

If you were the priest when he saw the injured man?	"I am so frightened! There's no-one here to help me!"
If you were Jesus thinking about this story he told?	"This poor man is badly hurt. I really must help him."
If you were the robbers when they took the man's money and ran off?	"I must hurry on before the robbers attack me!"
If you were the Samaritan when he decided to be a real friend?	"I hope people will be like the Samaritan - a real friend!"
If you were the traveller who was badly hurt?	"Now we have the money, let's run off before anyone comes!"

Have you ever helped anyone who was hurt and upset? Write the story and say how you think you were a real friend, just as Jesus taught.
