June 7 Bible Verse The eyes of the LORD are in every place observing both the evil and the good. Proverb 15:3 Make a poster out of the words in the verse or draw a picture of what you think of when you read the verse. Make it as colorful as you can.	June 8 Respect Tips Generate a list of ideas on how you can show respect to others. During the week see how many of these ideas you can do to show others respect. Check off each one as you do them. It could be things that your parents have asked you to do or things that you think someone else needs help with.	June 9 This is Me Showing Respect <table border="1" style="margin: 10px auto;"> <tr> <td style="width: 50px; height: 30px;"></td> <td style="width: 50px; height: 30px;"></td> </tr> <tr> <td style="width: 50px; height: 30px;"></td> <td style="width: 50px; height: 30px;"></td> </tr> </table> Fold a piece of paper into four squares. Look back at the list that you made yesterday. Choose 4 things from the list and draw what you would look like doing those things. This can help you to remember to do some of the ideas that you came up with.					June 10 Ice Cream in a Bag  Place 1/2 cup heavy whipping cream or half and half, 1 tsp vanilla, 2 1/2 tsp sugar into a tightly sealed sandwich sized bag, pressing the air out as you seal it. Then put this into another tightly sealed sandwich bag. Fill a gallon size resealable bag half-way full of ice cubes and mix with 6 tbs of coarse kosher salt. Then put the sealed sandwich-size bag into the middle of the ice and seal the larger bag. Double up the gallon size bags as well. Shake the bag for about 5-10 minutes.	June 11 Respect Interviews Interview a few family members. This can be done on the phone or in person. Ask each family member why they think that being respectful is important. In your journal, write down what you found out in your interviews.	June 12 Respect Rap  Work alone or with a partner to create a song, a rap, or a chant about respect. Your words should tell why respect is important and how it could make the world a better place. Write the rap on a piece of paper. Ask someone to help you record yourself singing the song or just reading it. Send it to the different family members that you interviewed to show them what you have learned. Find other people that you think might enjoy hearing your song and share it with them.	June 13 Respect at the Table Make a poster showing what respect looks like at the dinner table. The poster can include pictures and words of what to do and what not to do at the table. Add as many ideas as you can. Ask your family to help you with the ideas. Post it where the family can see it when they are eating. Ask the family to try to do or not do the things that you came up with in the poster. Make this a family activity every time you eat.
